

Busselton Libraries Conditions of Public Access Internet Use

The City of Busselton Public libraries provides internet access subject to customers reading and agreeing to the following Conditions of Use:

- Customers using the internet have a responsibility to ensure safe and appropriate use of the internet. There is also a requirement for general library usage protocols to be adhered to during internet use.
- Bookings are required prior to accessing the internet. Bookings can be made for one hour blocks with a maximum of two (2) hours per day.
- Latecomers forfeit the unused portion of their booked time. If more than fifteen (15) minutes late, the balance may be allocated to another customer.
- Supervision of a child's (under 18 years) access to the internet is the responsibility of the parent or guardian. A parent or guardian must sign an Internet Permission User Card to allow their child to use the internet unsupervised. (A legally independent adolescent is exempted from this requirement. Documentation such as Centrelink information is required). Children under the age of 16 are not allowed to use public internet computers during school hours 9.00am - 3.00pm unless accompanied by a parent or guardian or in possession of a pass from school.
- In accordance with the City of Busselton Schedule of Fees and Charges: Internet and email access is free for Library members. Non-members may purchase a "Guest Pass". Printing is available.
- Users are to abide by copyright regulations, licensing agreements and the WA Censorship Act 1996.
- This facility may not be used for the purpose of downloading or accessing information which may reasonably be considered to be pornographic or illegal. Any conduct deemed to be unsuitable whilst using the computers (changing settings, vandalism, etc.) or downloading software with the intent of installing onto library equipment will result in the termination of your current session and you could be barred from using the library computers permanently.
- The City of Busselton Libraries does not monitor or filter information accessed through the internet and therefore cannot be held responsible for its content. The Library affirms its traditional role in not censoring or monitoring use of its resources, regardless of format. However the Library reserves the right to deny access to certain sites if any of the conditions of use are breached.
- The City of Busselton Libraries does not take responsibility for any technical problems in accessing sites on the internet, saving documents or the accuracy of any information obtained.
- Food or drink is not to be consumed at the internet workstations.
